SOME ASPECTS OF THE

ETERNAL FEMININE.

(Specially written for the "CHINA MAIL.")

It is a nice speculation to indulge in these days, when the advanced Suffragette

is again threatening to harness the Asquith government by an active campaign, as to how far the aspirations of women as set forth so vociferously on the platform, in the street, or in the press, would have found sympathy with such an one as Elizabeth

Barrett Browning. It may strike the casual reader as rather absurd considering the complete and unquestioning subjection to parental authority to which she was trained by her autocratic father to even think of her in such a connection. Yet the gentle, timid, shrinking poetess, who plucked up enough courage in the end to run away—with and wed the man of her choice, despite the active opposition of the domestic tyrant who dominated over all his household with a tyrannical almost Cæsarism in his hardness, had the root of the suffragette matter in her. Who can ever forget, having once read it, her poem entitled "A Woman's Question?"

Do you know you have asked for the costliest thing

Ever made by the Hand above—

A woman's heart, and a woman's hand,

And a woman's wonderful love!

You have written my lesson of duty out:

Now-like, you have questioned me—

Now stand, at the door of my woman's soul

Until I shall question thee.

You require your mutton shall always be hot,

Your socks and your shirts shall be whole;

I require your heart to be true as God's stars,

And pure as Heaven your soul.

You require a cook for your mutton and beef;

I require a far better thing;

A seamstress you're waiting for stockings

and things—

I look for a man and a king.

A king for a beautiful realm called Home,

And a man that the Maker, God,

Shall look upon as He did the first,

And say, "It is very good."

I require all things that are grand and true,

All things that a man should be;

If you give this all, I would stake my life

To be all you demand of me.

If you cannot do this—a laundress, a cook—

You can hire, with little to pay,

But a woman's heart, and a woman's life

Are not to be won that way.

Perhaps as a poetess Miss Barrett, as she then was, may have expected a little too much. The ideal man does not yet exist. In the happy days that are coming

THE REVOLUTION. THE SACKING OF NANKING.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Nov. 11.
Reuter's correspondent at Shanghai states that the fighting between Imperialists and the rebels continues at Nanking.
The Imperialists are slaughtering the inhabitants and burning and sacking the city.
Thousands are fleeing.

FOOCHOW MANCHUS CAUSE TROUBLE.

The Manchus at Foochow unsuccessfully attempted to burn the foreign settlement.
The Republicans have executed 27 incendiaries.

HANYANG BOMBARD.

LONDON, Nov. 12.
Reuter's correspondent at Peking telegraphs that it is reported that the Imper-ialists have begun to bombard Hanyang.

A RIFT IN THE LUTE.

Yuan Shih Kai has telegraphed that there are dissensions among the rebel leaders, and that General Li Yuan Hong, with whom Yuan Shih Kai has been negotiating, shows signs of agreeing to a peaceful compromise. China south of the Yangtze becoming Republican and Chihli remaining monarchial, while the other provinces are to choose their own government. Much depends on the attitude of General Chang, who is controlling the situation.

YUAN SHIH KAI'S REFUSAL.

LATER.
Yuan Shih Kai has again telegraphed to the Throne, refusing to accept the office of Premier.

NANKING RECAPTURED.

LONDON, Nov. 13.
Reuter's correspondent at Shanghai wires
that the Imperialists have regained Nanking, the Republicans lacking ammunition.

REBEL LEADER SARCASTIC.

LATER.
Reuter's correspondent at Shanghai has wired that Yuan Shih Kai has written to Li Yuan Hong offering terms and urging the acceptance of a constitution which will give the monarchy an opportunity of proving its sincerity and fulfilling its promises.
A Daily Telegraph message from Peking
says that the latter ended ambiguously,
and that Li Yuan Hong, on reading it, laughed,
and said that he would give an answer
when the rebels entered Peking.

YUAN SHIH KAI'S MOVEMENTS.

While still refusing to accept the Premiership, Yuan Shih Kai has started for Peking to discuss the situation.
An audience with the Regent has been arranged.

General Chang, commanding the rebel army in the North, is also expected.

CHEFOO GOES OVER.

Reuter's Shanghai correspondent wires that Chefoo has peacefully submitted to the rebels.

YUAN SHIH KAI ARRIVES.

LATER.
Reuter's Peking correspondent wires that Yuan Shih Kai arrived on the afternoon of the 13th, looking hale and hearty.

Vast but silent crowds lined the route to his residence, and he was accompanied by 2,000 troops.

FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE IMPORTANT REORGANISATION SCHEME.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 12.
The French Foreign Office is being rigorously reorganised, the Minister for Foreign Affairs finding that certain agreements with Spain which have been concluded by M. Cruppi are not in the archives.

M. Georges Louis, Ambassador to St.
Petersburg, has been summoned to take charge of the Political Department.

THE RAILWAY DISPUTE.

A HOPEFUL RAY.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 13.

The railwaymen at Crew have unanimously decided to oppose the strike and to accept the Commission's findings.
This development is most significant as those who have come to this decision include a large proportion of the drivers on whom the situation chiefly depends.

THE WAR. HEAVY FIGHTING REPORTED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Nov. 11.
Reuter's correspondent at Rome reports that a fight took place yesterday at Tripoli lasting seven hours. The Turks made a desperate effort to recover Fort Hamideh,
but were repulsed.

LONDON, Nov. 13.
Reuter's Malta correspondent states that an Austrian steamer from Tripoli reports fighting on Friday of the heaviest description. The Arabs made savage rushes close to the Italian trenches and many hand to hand combats took place. There were heavy casualties on both sides.

THE POWERS AND ITALIAN EXCESSES.

LATER.
Reuter's Correspondent at Constantinople states that the reply of the Powers to the recent Turkish protest against excesses of the Italian troops in Tripoli states that while unable to take any other action
they will call the attention of the Italian Government to the charges made.

PIERCE FIGHTING.

Refugees arriving at Malta from Tripoli declare that Friday's fighting was as fierce as the battle fought on the 2nd October.

AGAIN REPULSED.

The Turks and Arabs twice attacked the Italian lines at Tripoli yesterday but were repulsed.

ZANZIBAR.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 13.

The Daily Mail states that the Sultan of Zanzibar has come to London to arrange for his abdication, after which he will probably reside in Egypt.

ADDITION CONFIRMED.

The Sultan of Zanzibar, interviewed by Reuter, confirmed the report of his abdication, stating that it was for reasons of health. He intended undergoing treatment in Europe every six months.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 13.

The promoter and principals of the Moran-Driscoll fight, which was fixed to take place in Birmingham on December 16th, appear in the Birmingham Police Court to-day, having been summoned for planning a breach of the peace.

The case will be fought as a test case.
Lord Lansdale has guaranteed the costs of the defence, and numerous boxing experts will give evidence.

ILLEGAL.

LATER.
The Birmingham Stipendiary Magistrate decided the contest was a prize fight and was therefore illegal.
The defendants were bound over.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 13.

While not objecting to the proposed separate Irish Insurance Office in Dublin,
the Daily Chronicle strongly criticises Mr Lloyd-George's amendments to the Bill establishing a separate fund for Scotland and a separate Commission at Edinburgh, empowered to modify the scheme of benefits and contributions to meet Scottish conditions. It points out the complications that will arise from the constant passage of workmen across the border, involving a change in their insurance status.

The Welsh members have submitted amendments with the object of obtaining similar treatment for Wales.

NYASSALAND.

COMMUNICATIONS TO BE IMPROVED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 13.

During question time in the House of Commons Mr Harcourt stated that he was fully alive to the need of improved means of communication from Nyassaland to the coast, and he was doing all in his power to secure an improvement in the means of transport.

He regretted that for the present it was impossible for him to make a more explicit statement.

ANOTHER WAR CLOUD. RUSSIA SENDS ULTIMATUM TO PERSIA.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Nov. 13.
Russia has sent an ultimatum to Persia threatening a rupture of relations and other serious measures unless she receives an apology for an alleged insult on the Russian Consul General on the occasion of the confiscation of the property of Prince Shuass Sultanah by orders of the Majlis.

The Persian Government, vehemently protested against the intervention of the Russians on the occasion of the confiscation and refuses to apologise.

The Times correspondent at Teheran states that the Regent and the whole Cabinet has resigned, and no Minister is likely to go to the Legation to apologise.

THE DURBAR.

THEIR MAJESTIES SAIL FOR INDIA.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 11.

Their Majesties left London for India to-day, receiving a great ovation. They drove in an open landau with postilions
and an escort of Horse Guards, from Buckingham Palace to Victoria Station, being accompanied by the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary.

Large crowds had assembled at the station, and on the platform was a distinguished gathering of three hundred, including every member of the Royal Family, Ambassadors, the Premier and Mrs Asquith, members of the Cabinet, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dominion and Colonial representatives, and India Office officials.

The guard of honour was furnished by the Coldstream Guards.

After the National Anthem had been played, the King bade farewell and had an animated conversation with several of those present. As the train steamed out the National Anthem was again played.

Queen Alexandra and Prince Arthur of Connaught accompanied their Majesties to Fortsmouth.

On arrival at Portsmouth their Majesties were received by a brilliant naval and military gathering, guards of honour, and massed bands. The King and Queen boarded the Medina, and when the Royal Standard was broken from the masthead
the Victory fired salutes.

The royal luncheon party on board
included Queen Alexandra, Princess Maud, Princess Mary. Afterwards some time was taken up in saying farewell before the Medina proceeded seawards.

At Spithead the Medina was met by the first division of the Home Fleet and the first cruiser squadron, which escorted her part of the way down the Channel. The royal naval procession was unvaried for impressiveness, including as it did ten of the fine battleships and cruisers in the world.

THE RED SEA LIGHTS.

LONDON, Nov. 13.
During the passage of Their Majesties
through the Red Sea Turkey is ordering a special re-lighting of the lights extinguished owing to the war.

OUR NAVAL POLICY.

LORD C. BERSFORD AND MR CHURCHILL.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 11.

Lord Charles Balfour, speaking at Portsmouth, assured Mr Churchill that if he took a national and imperial interest in the Navy and stopped his almost feminine antipathies in its administration, he would have no more loyal supporter than Lord Balfour.

IMPERIAL CRICKET.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA V. M.C.C.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 10.

Glorious weather favoured the continuation of the match between the M.C.C. and South Australia at Adelaide. Marylebone brought their score up to 563. Warner contributed 151. His exhibition was massive, only giving one chance. Foster made 154. His was a fine all-round display, though he was lucky.

South Australia made 85 for four wickets
when stumps were drawn for the day.

AUSTRALIA FOLLOWS ON.

LATER.
The match between the M.C.C. and South Australia was resumed in glorious weather. There was a small attendance, and the wicket was not worn. In the first innings South Australia compiled 141, which total Clem Hill contributed 51.

Foster took 4 wickets for 58 runs, and Barnes for 38 runs.

The South Australians followed on, and their score stands at 204 runs for eight wickets. Crawford contributed 83 by vigorous hitting, including twelve fours, while Mayne's score stands at 82, unfinished. The latter offered a splendid defence.

THE REICHSTAG DEBATE. ANTI-BRITISH SPEECHES CONDEMNED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Nov. 11.
Dr. Baumbach-Hollweg, the whole of whose speech was received with marked disapproval on Thursday, was yesterday cheered by the House in a passionate rebuttal administered to Herr Heydebrand, who is popularly known as the "uncrowned King of Prussia." The Chancellor said that he regretted the words used in the Reichstag regarding Great Britain which were not usual in a Parliament with a sense of responsibility. They were words of passion going beyond all bounds
and must harm the German Empire.

A strong man need not be over carrying the sword. He must openly say that there were forces at work which were more concerned with the impending elections
than with Morocco.

The German Press generally condemns
the attitude of the Crown Prince.

KAYSER REBUKES CROWN PRINCE.

LONDON, Nov. 12.
The Kaiser, it is understood, has strongly disapproved of the attitude of the Crown Prince, who is not to attend further debates.

SUPPRESSING ANGIOPHOBIA.

LONDON, Nov. 13.
Reuter's Berlin correspondent wires
that the Reichstag has unanimously referred the Moroccan agreement to the Budget Committee.

Official circles emphasise that the Chancellor in his speeches steadily refused to win political capital by pandering to anti-British feeling, and state that there is authority for the statement that the Chancellor and the Foreign Office will continue to oppose the anti-British campaign.

ANGLO-GERMAN RAPPOCH- MENT MOOTED.

An unconfirmed report has been published to the effect that Britain is desirous of concluding a rapprochement with Germany, and is prepared to offer
Germany important colonial concessions, notably in the direction of rounding off German South-west Africa.

UNIONISM.

THE NEW LEADER.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Nov. 11.

Mr Austen Chamberlain and Mr Walter
Long will propose the nomination of Mr Bonar Law as leader at Monday's meeting of the party.

Mr Bonar Law has intimated his acceptance of the leadership.

APPRECIATED SELF-DENIAL.

LATER.
The Unionist papers while congratulating Mr Bonar Law on his selection as leader of the Unionist party, eulogise the self-denial of Mr Walter Long and Mr Austen Chamberlain as rising both in higher public esteem. Mr Law's Canadian origin is considered a happy augury, and the hopes expressed that he will be Britain's Borden.

TO HELP THE CAUSE.

LATER.
Mr J. Buchanan has given a donation of £10,000 to the Tariff Reform League for the appointment of Mr Bonar Law as Unionist leader.

THE PARTY MEETING.

The meeting of the Unionist party at the Carlton Club for the purpose of appointing a new leader was held with representatives. Mr Henry Chaplin, the oldest Privy Counsellor alive, presided. He said there had been four names submitted for the leadership, but three had withdrawn their nomination on patriotic considerations, leaving only Mr Bonar Law—(Cheers).

Mr Walter Long, amid enthusiastic proposals, proposed the appointment of Mr Bonar Law. He suggested Mr Balfour's services to the House of Commons and said they would continue to be priceless in future years. He affirmed that he (the

We have now had two generations of peace, and, naturally, this period has been utilised by the Continental nations to develop themselves commercially and industrially. With this accession of commercial activity and wealth comes a certain feeling of power—a desire to show to the world on the part of such a nation as Germany, for instance, that she has grown from a small Power into a great and strong combination. It is just as if an individual had become rich by strenuous effort and business aptitude, and began to engage many servants, and to own motor cars and to make a certain amount of display.

"The Germans, as we know, have been tremendously hard-working during the past four decades. Their exports have increased immensely, and their wealth in a like degree. From small beginnings it has been easy for certain trades in Germany to double or even treble their productivity—a thing which, of course, has been impossible in England. But if people in England nowadays made a comparison and arrive at the conclusion that Germany is gradually outdistancing England they either willingly or unknowingly deceive themselves. The vast majority of German trades are still woefully small compared with the trades of England. But for the last thirty years the Germans have had an alliance with Austria and, to a certain extent, with Italy, and there have been certain moments when they have tried to show to the world that they want to be recognised as a Great Power and to demonstrate that if any new territories are to be opened up either by one nation or by distribution amongst nations they must have a fair share.

"It is evident to anybody who knows the map of the world that there are no more great colonies to be acquired, and that all the principal ones belong to England. It is also evident to everybody who has a certain amount of knowledge of the British Colonies that no educated German, be he in a leading position in the Government or a great banker or a great industrial man, could ever imagine that any such Colony could possibly be taken from England by Germany. What is regarded as possible is that certain Colonies might in the course of years make themselves independent, but for any one to dream that Canada or Australia or New Zealand or Egypt or India should ever be ruled by Germany is an absurdity.

"Germany has experienced enormous difficulty in extending her rule to territory even adjoining the Fatherland. She has had great trouble with Alsace-Lorraine, which, after all was formerly German, and the same thing may be said of her Polish provinces. To-day, forty years after the great Franco-German eruption, French influence in Alsace-Lorraine, if one may say so, is still very much in evidence. All therefore Germany can possibly aspire to is—and undoubtedly she does not expect more than that—to be fairly considered when any of the few remaining open territories come to be administered by powerful European States.

"When France has taken possession of alien territory she has always shown a tendency to monopolise—to close the door against other nations—while the policy of Great Britain, on the other hand, has always been free trade for all. The French monopolised everything in Tunis and Algeria, so that when Germany sees France extending her political sphere of influence she realises the danger of economic advantages being entirely handed over to French merchants.

"Having said thus much about the position, I am bound to add that the possible eventuality of war taking place may be ignored as out of the question. We must realise that Germany has been in a large sense the battlefield for all nations for centuries, and that its geographical position is such an unfortunate one that the country must always be open to attack from practically all sides. From a European point of view it must gradually dawn upon people that in the event of a war between England and Germany, whichever were victorious the strength and influence of Europe would be tremendously weakened to the benefit of outside Powers.

There is much to be said for the last argument advanced in the foregoing statement. Germany has not by any means forgotten the misery and the sorrow caused by the war of 1870 brilliant though its outcome was for the Fatherland; while in Great Britain the more recent Boer war has left many bitter legacies whose effects will be felt beyond this generation. All things therefore should favour peace between the two nations, notwithstanding the belligerent utterances of irresponsible people.

It would be well for the world if something could be done to suppress those persons whose self-ordained mission in life is to sow the seeds of discord, suspicion and distrust between nation and nation. In writing this we are well aware that these mischievous folk are to be found in both Germany and England. Yet we would faintly hope that the day is not far distant when a broader-minded vision will be vouchsafed to those who at present devote themselves to nation-baiting, and that those people are wrong who contend that we shall never be sure of the peace of the world till the great battle of Armageddon has been lost and won.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

If the telegrams are to be trusted Dr. Wu Ting-fang, so well known in Hongkong, hopes that the United States will be first to extend recognition to the Republic of China. Hongkong Chinese, on the other hand, hope that the first nation to show sympathy with the revolution will be Great Britain. But how can recognition be accorded when no settled form of Government is in existence?

CORRESPONDENCE.

THE VICTORIA JUBILEE FOUNTAINS.

(To the Editor of the "China Mail.")
HONGKONG, Nov. 14.
Sir,—The callous disavowal by the Government of all responsibility for the protection of the Fountains which were presented to the Colony by a patriotic citizen to commemorate the Jubilee of a great sovereign, coupled with the confession of the inability of the police to protect public monuments, naturally leads to apprehension with regard to the monuments of more recent date which confiding citizens have entrusted to the Government without exacting any "undertaking" for their maintenance.

The Director of Public Works informed the Council that the water supply for the City had been so greatly improved since 1887 that the fountains were no longer needed.

The wanted improvement in the water supply is a matter of opinion, and any one who has seen crowds of Chinese patiently waiting at the taps for the daily dose of water might be led to consider that there is a great demand for a large number of fountains, because the "improvement" has not kept pace with the increase of population.

Supporting however some future utilitarian engineer should form the opinion that there had been so great an improvement in the water supply that the fountains were no longer needed to the community that the Colony's Statute were no longer needed to inspire the one or satisfy the other would the Government allow the Statute to crumble into decay until they formed footstools for coolies, as do the Jubilee Fountains?

Three Statues are within the precincts of the Temple of Mammon, and since the Government repudiates all responsibility, the High Priest of that Temple might seize the opportunity of advertising the sale of the Statues of the Colony's currency by covering Sir Thomas Jackson with the Bank Notes of Macao, Canton and Sun Yat Sen, and adorning the two Queens with strings of Chinese subsidiary coin.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Commodore and Mrs. Eyres returned from Japan to-day by the German Mail.

To-day is the twenty-second anniversary of the birthday of Dom Manuel, ex-King of Portugal.

Colonel Boys, commanding the King's Own Regiment, died at Lucknow on October 25th.

Capt. J. C. Grelton, 128th Baluchi Infantry, has qualified for admission to the Staff College at Camberley.

Captain A. McManis, R.A.M.C., has assumed medical charge of officers and their families, and soldiers' families.

Serjt.-Major Diver, M.P.S.C., will now perform the duties of Ship's Serjt.-Major during the homeward voyage of H.T. (Hull).

The period of furlough granted to Lieut. J. O. Beattie, 8th Rajputs, has been amended to read from 15th November, 1911, to 14th July, 1912 (for eight months from date of departure).

Mr James Robertson Blackie, a director of Blackie and Son, Limited, publishers, Glasgow, died in Egypt on March 18, leaving personal property of the value of £26,555.

Leave of absence to the United Kingdom, on the recommendation of a Medical Board, has been granted to Major W. B. Anley, R.G.A., from 16th November, 1911, to 15th May, 1912.

Capt. G. A. Guthrie, D.O., R.G.A., is appointed Superintendent, Detention Barrack, Hongkong, from 15th inst. inclusive, in succession to Capt. G. E. Garnett, R.G.A., who returns to England.

The Rev. S. S. Osterhout, Ph.D., of Vancouver, Canada, is now visiting Tokyo on his way to Canton. He has for some years taken a great interest in the Japanese and Chinese in Vancouver, and at last decided to devote his life to helping them, and in order to learn the language, customs, and religions of Japanese and Chinese, he has come to the East to spend a few years in study.

Mr Winston Churchill argued at Dundee in favour of Home Rule for Scotland, and the setting-up of a Scots Parliament. But he modestly forgot to use the chief argument in favour of the project. As member for Dundee, he would have to sit in Edinburgh, and Westminster would see him no more—unless he risked another defeat in Manchester. A Scottish Parliament would at least free England of half its Cabinet Ministers; a Welsh Parliament would dispose of Mr George; and the English Cabinet would be made up of Mr Lewis Harcourt and Mr John Burns—happy allies.

Amongst the names of the successful candidates at the Law examinations of the London University, we are glad to observe that of Mr Chao Chu-wu, only son of H.E. Wu Ting-fang, so long Minister of China to the United States. Mr Wu is one of five who took first-class honours, and divides a University Scholarship with another first-class man. As it was only in June last that Mr Wu was at the head of all the candidates for the year at the final examinations for the Bar, and received the scholarship of 100 g. a year for three years, it is evident we have here a Chinese of extraordinary abilities. Mr Wu, we see, is a member of Lincoln's Inn as was his father thirty-five years ago. He is at present residing in the Chambers of Mr J. W. McCarthy, and intends, we believe, to devote himself to private practice in China, where, we hope, his London success will attend his efforts. The official notification reads:—Law Examination Results.—LL.B. Examination.—Honours.—First Class.—E. C. Mayers, private study; and Chao Chu-wu, King's College (bracketed equal) and awarded a college of University Scholarship.—L. d' C. Express.

VICTORIA THEATRE.

The management of the Victoria Theatre are sparing no pains or expense in placing the best possible talent before the public of Hongkong, and it is gratifying to note that their efforts are meeting with such signal success for the latest addition to their music hall is Miss Daisy Ladny who has already become quite the rage. She is the fortunate possessor of a splendid voice and her songs are rendered in a pleasing and unaffected manner, which at once charms the audience. The pictures are new and interesting and are sure to please.

Two carpenters lived together at No. 77, Portland Street, Yuenmui, and were being somewhat slack one went to Hong-chow to see if he could get something to do. Having obtained a situation he returned for his tools which he had left behind but he was surprised to find that they together with his friend were missing. Information was given to the police when the friend was arrested with the tools in his possession and at the Magistrate's this morning he was sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment and four hours' stock.

CELEBRATING THE INDEPENDENCE OF KWANGTUNG.

Monday was observed as a general holiday by the Chinese in Hongkong in celebration of the declaration of independence by Kwangtung province. All Chinese, shops, stores and offices were closed and there was little or nothing doing. But beyond walking the streets, altogether a dreary job owing to a nasty dismal rain falling, there was little active enthusiasm displayed. Nevertheless thousands of the new republican flags of various designs were to be seen hanging from almost every Chinese house in the city while in some instances there was an attempt at more elaborate decoration.

A riotous had gained currency that the Government had withdrawn permission for the firing of crackers from 12 o'clock until 2 o'clock but this was incorrect and it must be said that the Chinese highly kept their favours within the hours mentioned. There was an attempt in one dense mass of smoke while the noise was deafening. Fortunately there was no attempt at the demonstration of a week ago.

An attempt to get up a demonstration occurred outside Sincere on Monday. It appears that no crackers were fired by the firm and some of the more rowdy element demanded that they should set off fireworks or they would be disloyal to the Republic. The manager, however, explained that he had no permission to set off crackers but this did not content the crowd. A European, who is said to be a Sanitary Inspector, intervened in order to pacify the mob but it is alleged that sticks and stones were thrown at him. Eventually the demonstration was transferred to the Opium Farmer's premises but the crowd cleared away on being assured that fireworks had been let off.

SPORTING.

Corinthian Yacht Club.

On Sunday under most happy conditions the Corinthian Yacht Club held its opening cruise to Lai-chi-ko. There was a very large attendance of members and friends, who left Bluffs Pier by launch at about 11 o'clock, and everybody spent a thoroughly enjoyable day, tiffin being served on shore amidst most picturesque surroundings. Main interest was, of course, centred in the day's sailing, which was greatly favoured by a stiff north-easterly breeze. Indeed, it was generally conceded that those present witnessed the best sailing regatta ever seen in Hongkong, there being an attendance of no fewer than 35 yachts. This happy state of affairs reflects great credit on the committee of this rising Club. The day's officials were:—

CLAIM FOR ASSAULT.

At the Supreme Court on Monday morning, before Mr. Justice Gompertz, Mrs. M. A. Perpetua sued A. Grestejo to recover $436, being as to $300 damages for assault, $105 money lent and $31 balance for damage to furniture.

Mr. J. H. Gardiner appeared for plaintiff and Mr. F. X. d'Almeida for defendant.

Mr. Gardiner said plaintiff, who was separated from her husband, and had been for some time, was approached by defendant and subsequently co-habited with him as man and wife until the middle of this year. During that co-habitation plaintiff lent defendant the money and he did damage to the furniture to the extent of $31.

Plaintiff, giving evidence as to the assault, stated that defendant wanted her to buy some tickets but she had no money she slipped her on the cheek. On July 18 she told him that the next day was her birthday and she asked him not to come in the day-time as she wanted to have a holiday with her two daughters. Defendant insisted upon coming and subsequently being suspicious of another man he again assaulted her. Finding that his suspicions were not correct he closed the doors and knelt on the floor and asked for pardon. Plaintiff pardoned him on that occasion. On another day when she had no brother for him he again beat her and threw her on the bed. On September 2 plaintiff met defendant in Graham Street, when she told him that she had finished with him unless he supported her. She also accused him of being in love with his mother-in-law. He replied that it did not matter and she asked him to go to a solicitor to sign a paper for $300 whereupon he struck her a blow in the face and knocked her down and ran away up the street. Meanwhile he had given her $1. Later she went to the telephone office where he was employed to ask for some money when a general fight took place. On April 6 plaintiff lent him $20 and later paraded her bracelet for $20 and subsequently raising a further loan of $15 on the tickets which she gave him to pay the rent of his house. Plaintiff described the damage to the furniture.

OBITUARY.

NOTED ENGINEER PASSES AWAY.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
London, Nov. 14.
The death is announced of Mr S. Holt Hallett.

[Note—The late Mr S. Holt Hallett received his education at Kensington School and Mr Baker, chief engineer of the S. W. railway. He constructed railways in Lancashire and Cheshire in 1860-1868 and in the latter year entered the Indian Public Works Department having control of large divisions in Burma. In 1880 he returned to Government service. Mr Hallett proposed the connection of the Indian and Burmese railways which has since been adopted. Together with Mr Colquhoun he roused the nation to the importance of new markets in the Far East and proposed the connection of Burma with Siam and China by railway, subsequently exploring the country between Moulmein and Kiang Eien, on the Mekong, for the best route in connection with the project. He discovered the sources of the river Irrawaddy and made an exploration survey for a branch railway to Bangkok in 1883-1884 and consulted with the late King of Siam as to railway development in Siam as well as visiting China at the time of the Sino-French war. The following year he visited Siam, Burma and India and at the request of the Foreign Office and the War Office sent in a report with maps dealing with the political aspect of affairs in India. In 1897 he advised the Government of Upper Burma and received the silver medal of the Society of Arts. In 1900-1892 he organized and led a movement for the improvement of Indian factory legislation. His publications include a number of technical works.—Ed. C.M.]

ASQUITH'S REFORM SPEECH.

PREMIER EXPLAINS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
London, Nov. 14.
Mr Asquith, the Prime Minister, replying to several questions in Parliament, explained that a good deal had been read into his reform speech. What he actually advocated was the necessity of electoral reform, there being substituted for the present complicated and illogical network of suffrage simply a residential qualification. He was of the opinion that such a change must be followed by an equitable redistribution.

OLDHAM BY-ELECTION.

UNIONIST GAIN.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
London, Nov. 14.
The bye election at Oldham has resulted as follows:
Mr Dennis (Lib) 12,255
Mr Stanley (Lab) 10,623
Mr Robinson (Lab) 7,443
Unionist majority over Liberal, 1,602
Unionist majority over Labour, 4,772
Liberal majority over Labour, 3,175
[Note.—This bye election is caused by the Cabinet reconstruction. At the last General Election the Hon. Mr. Bennett, who had been appointed Under-Secretary for the Colonies and entered the House of Lords, vacated the seat at Oldham, a double-barrelled constituency, the other Liberal candidate being also successful. Mr Bennett's figure was 17,108, against the 13,440 of the nearest Unionist.—Ed. C.M.]

THE REVOLUTION.

Canton.

It is reported that the money in the Treasury of the Nanking and Shanghai officials have all been stolen. When the police were notified of this, they went off to protect the money, but found that they were too late. In many of the streets, gambling has recommenced, and the names of five streets are mentioned in the report before us. At present, however, those who are in high positions have other things to look after, which they regard as more important than the suppression of local gambling. Special attention has been given to the fire brigade, and one Mr Chia has been placed in charge. He has been told that the Revolutionists must be shown in his department, the reason probably being that incendiary fires are possible. It is reported also that on the afternoon of the nineteenth, some hundred men of the Kwang soldiers fully armed, seized the premises of the military gymnasium. Afterwards, it was possible to buy a foreign blanket in the public streets for thirty or forty cents. But the public were afraid to buy, lest these blankets should be used as evidence that they themselves had been looting. Also many household belongings could be purchased in the streets at a very cheap rate.

As before detachments of the People's Army went off to protect the buildings, but they were too late to prevent the robbery. The looters had got hold of their loot and vanished.

The Kwang soldiers want to return to their own province, and they have offered to go back, but only on condition that they receive five months' pay in advance. When the money is paid they will be met by the army. But they are more or less a menace to the peace of the city, for they are not of the people, in the same sense as if they were native born.

When the revolutionary flag was first hoisted, there was an immediate movement made to hold the various telegraph stations that there might be no interference there-with, and that messages might be sent and received as usual. This the People's representatives were able to do.

It is said that the Bank of Communications, and the Tai Ching bank immediately shut their doors. It was not that the banks were short of funds, but they feared a run upon them by those who had notes or other things that they could use for the time to prevent this possible disturbance. On the other hand one official bank was kept open and did business as usual. Every effort is being made by the People's Government to keep things going in a normal way so that business shall be interfered with as little as possible, and in this aim they are succeeding with commendable success. Although the new Government has not yet issued any proclamation in respect to the ending of the Opium trade, on the day that the flag was hoisted thousands of the people got rid of them at once.

All Quiet at Swatow.

A correspondent writes:—The rebels took possession of Swatow on the 10th. The place is literally alive with them, some armed and some unarmed. They parade the streets of the city and their white flags are everywhere. They are in charge of the Telegraph Office, but work and business is going on as usual and everything is quiet. It is estimated that not less than 10,000 soldiers, who have been recruited, are concentrated in the vicinity of Sam Chun. It is reported that they are clearing everything before them, their object being to get to the railway and to march on Canton. However, extraordinary precautions are being taken to avert trouble from that quarter.

British Troops Under Arms to Keep Peace on Frontier.

Another company of infantry and one of artillery left by special train for the frontier this morning. A gentleman who had just returned from the frontier on Monday informed a representative of the C.M. that the trouble was not situated with either the Imperialists or Revolutionists but with the brigands. It was these brigands who created the disturbance in the vicinity of Sam Chun a few days ago. It is understood that a large amount of cattle smuggling has been carried on across the frontier but that recently the smugglers have been trapped and in consequence the revolution in China is taken as an incentive to a peace disorder.

INTERPORT SHOOTING.

HONGKONG'S TOTAL 904.

At the King's Park range this morning the Hongkong team fired off in the Interport Rifle Shooting match. It was at first intended to fire on Monday, but owing to the bad weather then prevailing the shoot was postponed until to-day. Fair conditions prevailed, though the light was changeable and the wind variable. In spite of this, however, some fairly good shooting was done, especially when it is remembered that the new targets in use were considerably smaller than those shot at last year. At 200 yards the bull's-eye was replaced by a figure target, the "bull" being reduced to five inches instead of six and the outer rings reduced correspondingly. At 300 yards there was a figure target, as last year, but the size of the "bull" was reduced from 20 inches to 18 and the outer rings also contracted. At 400 yards there was a bull's-eye target, the "bull" being 18 inches instead of last year's 20 inches, and the outer rings correspondingly diminished in size.

The team, which was chosen after careful observation at the practice range, was largely new, the only veterans being four of the team, Messrs. Heald, Henderson, West and Stewart, having taken part in previous shoots, though Mr F. Brown, another member of the team, was first reserve last year. This time he came out top scorer in the aggregate. Even at 200 yards the team was in trouble, and the 300 registered was six below last year's score and three less than Shanghai's figure at the same distance in this year's shooting. At 400 yards the average was fairly good, only one man being below 30, but all the same the team's score was five less than last year's. On going to the last range, the team was faced with the task of exceeding by 20 points Shanghai's score of 903 at the 600 yards. Otherwise a win would be impossible. It was, the men failed to do this, but the team made a "possible" score at any range.

Owing to the absence during the practice of Capt. Northcote, the secretarial duties were this year undertaken by Mr E. Stewart, a keen shooting enthusiast, who carried out the duties most thoroughly. Col. A. Chapman, Commandant of the Volunteer Corps, was the Hongkong Umpire, while Major D. Macdonald, Senior and Shanghai respectively. Mr C. E. Tucker captained the Hongkong team and his advice at the range was greatly appreciated. Below are the full scores, the figures in parenthesis representing the missing shot and not counting.

K. O. Y. L. I. BAND CONCERT.

The large audience which gathered at the Theatre Royal on Saturday night to patronize the concert in which selections by the K. O. Y. L. I. Regimental Band predominated were treated to some first-class fare. There was a representative assembly of military officers and their ladies, the company present also including a party from Government House, H.E. Major-General and Mrs. Anderson, besides a fair sprinkling of well-known civilian residents. Save for two items, the full Regimental band supplied the whole of the first part of the programme. The musical mentalists made an auspicious opening with Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance" March, which was played with much spirit, but it was in the Overture to "William Tell" that they achieved perhaps their greatest success, an encore having to be conceded. This old favourite was handled with marked skill, and the extraordinary faithfulness with which the performers followed the music was a tribute to the studied manner in which the band had been trained by Bandmaster Moss. That the talents of the bandmen do not run merely in one direction was proved by the effective interpretation of three bracketed items of widely varying theme—Dvorak's Humoresque, Schubert's "Polka", and Capota's "O Sole Mio", all of which were splendidly rendered. The first vocal item of the evening was contributed by Mr. H. J. Jones, who met with marked success in his rendering of the Prologue from "I Pagliacci", and though his voice made an unfortunate slip the audience recognized his capabilities and demanded a second encore. Miss Gordon sang Ernest Newman's "For love of you," a solo admirably suited to her rich, mellow voice. She also was encored. Only one other vocal number was contained in the programme. This was the over-popular song "Promise of Life." Mrs. Gordon was the vocalist, and it is equivalent to stating that it was almost perfectly rendered when it is written that she sang it with her usual taste and skill. Responding to the demands for a encore, she gave an unqualified delight by her sympathetic singing in "The Song of Sleep." One of the finest numbers on the programme was Grieg's Piano Concerto in A minor, played with orchestral accompaniment by Mr. Dorman Fuller. This was a masterly piece of work in which the popular pianist again gave evidence of his unique gifts as an executant. Here also an encore was inevitable. The stringed orchestra of the Regiment contributed two items in the second part of the programme, namely Handel's Largo and Fing's "In the shadows." These were interpreted with distinctly good taste and here also the thoroughness of Bandmaster Moss' training was apparent. The full band was encored for a magnificent rendering of the "Peer Gynt" suite, and the last item was the selection "La Boheme" (Puccini). It should be added that for the vocal items good service was given by Miss Gordon and Mr. Dorman as accompanists. The programme concluded with the K.O.Y.L.I. Regimental march.

THE BURNING OF HANKOW.

Terrible Scenes.

The following, says the N. C. Daily News, is an extract from a private letter from Hankow, dated November 3.
"I have been on duty by the Post Office since 7 a.m. commanding the lot which is being taken out of the city by gangs. We send it all to the police station. Cash shops and pawn shops are those most raided. At 9.50 a shell burst on the godown roof alongside our kitchen. The noise was terrific. The fleet has just now begun bombarding those forts down river. I expect they will get up here to-day and then things will be bad indeed."
"All night through the city has been one red glare. The light has lighted up Wuhsung so that houses could all be clearly seen. It is a terrible sight, but oh! the poor people! This well-to-do merchants and their wives and children, fleeing from the burning city and nowhere to flee to. They sit down in the road and just burst out crying. It is all too horrible for words. Where can we go? They ask—and we have nowhere to suggest. They are all coming on to the concession, also a great swarm of bad characters."
"This burning of the city is the work of devils, not men. It is quite unnecessary for military operations. The people, at least thousands, had stayed believing it would be all right. That it should be thus burnt without notice, and all these thousands of unfortunates thus unnecessarily ruined, is too wicked for words."

ALLEY BOWLING.

INTER-CLUB MATCH.

The Germania were successful in winning the inter-club bowling match with the Hongkong Club by 223.

The features of the match were the consistently fine bowling of Martin and Christiani and Hooper's record score of 883 on the second day, which enabled him to secure third place after a very indifferent start. Walf, Humphreys and Hausmann also bowled well.
